WESTLAKE — Over 800 people gathered for a hometown celebration in Westlake Nov. 30 for the annual Tree Lighting event.

Mayor Laura Wheat flipped the switch to light the 20-foot Christmas tree at The Plaza in Solana, 1301 Solana Blvd.

Westlake Communications Manager Jon Sasser said, "This was the first time the event was held at Solana Plaza and it was the largest crowd ever."

The evening was filled with lots of activities including carriage rides, a cakewalk, reindeer petting zoo, food tastings from various local restaurants, hot beverages and a chance at cookie decorating. Children also had the chance to get their picture taken with Santa.
